

CONSTITUTION AND
BY-LAWS
OF
ALPHA PSI OMEGA
THE NATIONAL THEATRE
HONOR SOCIETY

Its Aims and Purpose

ALPHA PSI OMEGA was organized as a theatre honor society for the purpose of providing acknowledgement to those demonstrating a high standard of accomplishment in theatre and, through the expansion of ALPHA PSI OMEGA among colleges and universities, providing a wider fellowship for those interested in theatre. The society is not intended to take the place of any regular theatre clubs or producing groups, but as students qualify they may be rewarded by election to membership in this society.

This booklet is intended to serve as a source of information for members of the society. Secondly, it will place before those interested in theatre the goals of ALPHA PSI OMEGA and demonstrate what can be accomplished to stimulate interest in college and university theatre by an honor society whose goal is fellowship and service.

Founded August 12, 1925

Revised March 4, 2011

INDUCTION CEREMONY

Instructions for the Induction Ceremony

PLACE: The induction ceremony should, if possible, take place on a stage.

DECORATION: It is suggested that the colors of the society (blue and gold) be used in decorating. A table or tables for the officers might be covered with colored cloths. A society banner with blue background and gold lettering and border may be used as decoration (banners may be purchased from the National Office).

DRESS: The officers should dress appropriately for the occasion. In addition, they may use black gowns (like graduation robes). Blue and gold sashes might also be worn across the shoulder.

PREPARATION: Any ceremony used should be memorized as much as possible and should be rehearsed at least once.

Attention should be paid to providing a photographic and/or videotape record of all activities for chapter archives and public relations.

Installation Ceremony for New Inductees

(An appointed member escorts the inductees into the meeting and presents them to the officers by saying:)

MEMBER: Officers and members of the _____ Chapter, I present these inductees who seek to join this chapter of ALPHA PSI OMEGA. Their contributions to the theatre have been examined and each person has fulfilled requirements for induction into this chapter. In order that all present members can know of these contributions the candidates will now state their names and qualifications for membership.

(Each inductee gives his/her name and a brief description of his/her participation in the theatre.)

PRESIDENT: In order that we may further judge your abilities we ask that you present your selection from Shakespeare.

(Each inductee presents the selection. The President may then ask the inductees to recite the Greek alphabet or this may be given in the written examination and omitted during induction.)

(If further discussion is deemed necessary, the inductees will be conducted from the room. When the chapter members are ready to continue, the President will ask for the inductees to be brought back and will announce the names of those to be inducted.)

PRESIDENT: You have been selected as a prospective member of the _____ Chapter of ALPHA PSI OMEGA. Before you are admitted as a member you must be given some special instructions. All of our abilities are in need of training to be of use in entertaining and enlightening the public, or in playing the roles expected of us. Will our performances afford pleasure and education to others? Are you able to render service?

I shall now teach you the motto of every theatre artist who plays a part in this society. It is as follows: "We seek to become artists by the one and only road of labor and service." I now ask you to repeat it after me. "We seek to become . . ."

INDUCTEES: We seek to become artists by the one and only road of labor and service.

PRESIDENT: I congratulate you and ask that you listen carefully to the instructions of the Business Manager.

BUSINESS MANAGER: ALPHA PSI OMEGA teaches nothing new in saying that you will be rewarded according to the quality of your performances -- but this is the Alpha and Omega of this society, the beginning and the end! Although your work so far has admitted you to this chapter, it is no sign that your work is done. This recognition demonstrates that you are capable of even better work. To be an artist requires infinite capacity for hard work and attention to detail. ALPHA PSI OMEGA would have you reach the highest accomplishments; envision all that you are capable of being. Now that you, by your hard work, have been admitted to this society and have the reputation of a great honor society to uphold, you must conserve your life, your health, and your character. Therefore, to the beginning and end, let there be added the cardinal principles for which the letter "Psi" of our name, ALPHA PSI OMEGA, stands, and which means "Mind and Spirit." Our motto, "Seek a Life Useful," means not only that we strive to be artists, but that we endeavor to seek the highest goal of any artist, service.

PRESIDENT: Listen carefully to the Vice-President who will tell you of the significance of our society symbols.

VICE-PRESIDENT: ALPHA PSI OMEGA, by conferring upon you its fellowship, its ceremony, and its symbols, has brought you into the enjoyment of many advantages and privileges. Earning the right to membership in this organization is in itself a recommendation of your ability and your industry. It was in Ancient Greece that the drama became a definite part of the art and culture of the civilized world and, as such, you were asked to learn the Greek alphabet in preparation for this membership. Across the frieze of the Greek edifice in our society crest is a Greek motto which means, “Seek a Life Useful.” Our society colors, blue and amber, represent the traditional warm and cool colors used in theatrical lighting.

PRESIDENT: (To the inductees.) Raise your right hand and repeat after me: “I _____, do solemnly promise, that I will uphold the constitution of the ALPHA PSI OMEGA society, that I will work in every way possible to uphold the honor of this society, both in service to my fellows, and by personal adherence to the principles of ALPHA PSI OMEGA. I will always support the chapter in every worthwhile undertaking, and do all in my power to extend the principles and reputation of THE ALPHA PSI OMEGA NATIONAL THEATRE HONOR SOCIETY.”

By the authority vested in me by the National Office I now declare you members of this _____ Chapter of THE ALPHA PSI OMEGA NATIONAL THEATRE HONOR SOCIETY, and by this handclasp welcome you into fellowship.

The new members may now be asked to sign the membership scroll. (Scrolls can be purchased from the National Office.)
